

over the forth

HEDGEPIG

"They can play their instruments, sing rather well, and they certainly are FHL [Faster, Harder, Louder]...if you like your music with a not terribly trad attitude, lots of verve, and a bit of percussion done loud," (Green Man Review).

With tunes driven by duelling fiddle, alto sax and whistles, over a solid back line of bass and percussion, Celtic-Folk-Rock band Hedgepig are firmly rooted in the 'rocking up' of traditional folk; songs deftly shared between their Scottish and English lead vocalists.

Favourite Festivals

Burnham-On-Sea Folk Festival 2010-'12

"Rounded up and lashed into action by the very wonderful Rosie Eade, Hedgepig booted bum ... They lean towards the Scots and Irish tradition, but not too heavily. Great fun." 2012

Cambridge Big Day Out 2008

Belper Music Festival 2008

Ipswich Folk & Maritime 2007 (headline)

Second Stage, Ely Folk Festival 2007 (Sat. headline)

Main Stage, Ely Folk Festival 2006 (Fri. pre-headline)

Folk Clubs - Headline

Cambridge, 2011-'12

Ipswich, 2006-'07

Royston, 2014

Radio Play

Cambridge 105 Nick Skelton 2009

+ Rosie Eade on

BBC Radio Bristol Johnny Coppin 2012

BBC Radio Devon John Govier 2012

On tour summer 2013

Current line up is Steve White on vocals and guitar, Mark Lemon on fiddle and vocals, Rosie Eade on vocals, sax and whistles, Jim Gair on bass and Steve Matthews on mandolin and bodhran.

info@hedgepig.org

www.hedgepig.org

www.facebook.com/hedgepigfolk